James McGowan

Jerry Walker

James Rogers

Dave Bauer

Walker, Rogers, Bauer to Occupy Other Positions

by Manuel Pasquil

James McGowan has been elected president of the 1955-56 freshman class. Other freshmen voted into office were: Jerry Walker, vice-president; Jim Rogers, secretary; and Dave Bauer, treasurer.

McGowan defeated his nearest opponent, Joseph Flanagan, by a slight majority. Henry Cabala also ran for the office. After his election, the new president emphasized that strivance for class unity and spirit as well as guaranteed representation in the Student Council will be his principal objectives.

Walker Polls Most Votes

In the race for the vice-presidency, Jerry Walker amassed the greatest number of votes in defeating Frank Cannon.

A run-off vote was necessary to determine the winner of the office of secretary. James Rogers was elected over Leo Meier in the run-off. James Deegan was the third candidate on the initial ballot.

Dave Bauer received the greatest percentage of votes in winning the treasurer's post. He defeated Richard Vallin and Len Klafka for the office.

Over 100 Don't Vote

The Student Council expressed disappointment over the fact that less than three-fourths of the freshman class showed up at the polls. About 260 ballots were cast and over 100 freshmen did not vote.

The voting was held under the supervision of the Council in Raleigh Hall from 12 to 6 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 17.

All the candidates ran on independent tickets.

Maher Elected New President Of SJ Band

Seniors Joe Maher and Jack Carlson have been elected president and secretary-treasurer, respectively, of the St. Joseph's College band, as a result of a recent vote by the newly revived group.

An advisory board, consisting of junior Kevin Gallagher, sophomore seminarian Bob Onofrey, and freshman Gordon Young was also elected. The members of this board, besides advising the president on the general running of the organization, will have the responsibility of striving to promote full-time band membership.

Elected to the office of publicity manager was junior George Archibald, who will be assisted by Bob Gasior, also a junior. The band, which is under the direction of Rev. Clement Kuhns, did not elect officers last year.

Annual Three-Day Retreat to Begin On Dec. 6; No Classes Scheduled

by Dan Wilkinson

The annual retreat will be conducted next month from Dec. 6-8. All Catholic students are required to attend and to take part in the religious exercises.

The retreat will open with a conference on Tuesday, Dec. 6, at 8:00 p.m., and end on Thursday, Dec. 8 with a Solemn High Mass for all retreatants in the fieldhouse.

Separate Retreat for Frosh

Rev. Henry Martin, C.P.P.S., will conduct the conferences for the freshman class separately, because of insufficient space to accommodate all the classes in the chapel. Mass will be held in the fieldhouse for the freshman class.

Rev. Donald Green, C.P.P.S., will be in charge of the sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Mass and conferences will be held for these classes in the chapel.

There are no classes scheduled for Dec. 7 and 8, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Enforce Silence

Beginning with the evening conference on Tuesday until the closing with solemn high mass on Thursday, students will not be permitted to travel beyond a two mile radius of the campus.

Games, cards, pinball machines, movies, the bowling alley, and taverns are forbidden to be used during the retreat. Since the retreat occupies only one full day of our time, silence will be kept throughout the services.

Proper dress for the retreat is a suit or sport ensemble. This is obligatory for all students and shall be worn at all retreat exercises, during Mass, and at all meals including the noon meal on Thursday.

College Sets Dates Of Entrance Exams

Six dates have been named by St. Joseph's College for entrance examinations for high school seniors.

The dates are: Dec. 10; Jan. 21; Feb. 18; March 17; April 21; and May 19. The examinations, which are for high school students whose records do not qualify them for admission without an exam, will be held on the campus from about 1 to 3 p.m.

Those who are required to take the examination will be notified by Rev. Charles Robbins, registrar.

Barnett Tops Dean's List With 4. Index

by Urban Thobe

Thirty-two St. Joseph's students have been named to the Dean's List for the mid-term grading period ending Nov. 5.

A cumulative index of 3.50 is necessary to gain a place on this year's list. The former minimum of 2.50 went out of effect when the new point system was adopted by the administration.

Based on New System

This new system is based on a possible high of 4.00, whereas previously the maximum index that could be achieved was a 3.00.

The only perfect mark of 4.00 for this grading period was made by senior Richard J. Barnett. Along with Barnett, Marvin L. Hackman and Peter G. Higgins represent the top producers of the senior class.

The juniors included on the List are: Richard C. Dietzen, Richard J. Flynn, Robert M. Gasior, Robert W. Heezen, Ronald E. Keller, George J. Saliga, Anthony M. Smith and Aloysius J. Stryck.

Sophomores Lead in Number

The sophomore class leads the school in quantity of Dean's List men. They are: Thomas O. Alter, Robert E. Caporal, John E. Crackel, James E. Detloff, Cyril M. Gulassa, Kevin C. Hensley, Thomas F. Mahoney, James A. O'Brien, George J. Schmid, Urban A. Thobe and Irwin S. Urban.

The freshmen on the List are: Harry R. Allagrey, Robert F. Baker, David R. Carey, Robert A. Fitzgerald, Richard F. Koch, Joseph P. Kovitch, Howard T. Liflick and Charles W. Roache.

Dean's List members are excused from the cut-system at the discretion of their individual instructors. However, they lose this privilege if they fail to stay on the List at the next grading period.

40 Tables Arrive For Dance Use

The 40 new tables for school dances, purchased jointly by Rev. D. Schaefer and the Student Council, have arrived at the college. The tables, which will accommodate six people apiece, are being stored in the Bennett Hall basement.

Plans are being made by the Council for a student trip to Valparaiso for the Puma's first basketball game away from home. The price of the trip, which is on Jan. 7, will be cut down to a minimum to allow as many students as possible to attend.

The Council also sent two dozen roses and an appropriate card to Mrs. Robert Jaunon on behalf of the student body. The coach's wife returned home last Thursday after having undergone an operation.

A chess tournament has also been approved by the Council. If there is sufficient interest shown in this tournament, the Council will award three prizes. It is hoped that the turnout will warrant the organization of a chess club here on campus.

St. Joe Students Honor 200 Dads

A record crowd of almost 200 Dads was honored on the campus at the annual Dad's Day program, Saturday, Nov. 12.

Special events for the Dads of the members of the football team began with devotions in the College chapel at 9:30 a.m. The pregame dinner then followed. Immediately after this dinner chalk-talks were held in the Rec Hall for the members of the team and their fathers only.

During these preliminary events, a reception was given in Merlini Hall lounge for all the mothers of students. This gathering began at 10:00 and lasted 'till 11:30 a.m.

The St. Joe-University of Illinois (Chicago branch) football game, which started at 1:30 p.m., was followed by a short get-together in the Rec Hall for all Dads and members of the faculty. This concluded the day's events.

Glee Club Plans Special Program For Christmas

by Jim O'Brien

The 1955 Christmas Music Festival will attempt to infuse that "ole Christmas spirit" into each and every one of you who attends. And if past results are a guarantee for this year's concert, you will leave the college theatre with a sentimental awareness of the approaching Christmas season.

This annual concert is a "must" for every Puma. If any of you freshmen or other new students are dubious, just ask some upperclassmen. Year in and year out the quality of these concerts has been superlative. And this year's will be no exception. Fr. Heiman and his Glee Club are making certain of that right now.

Scheduled for Dec. 13

The program will be held on Tuesday, Dec. 13. Eight p.m. is the starting time, so keep the evening free.

The Glee Club, the Singing 17, the Xavier Choir, and the Concert Chorus will sing a variety of selections especially styled to meet the popular taste. You will hear such favorites as "Adeste Fideles," "Silent Night," "White Christmas," "The Happy Wanderer," and Songs from "Oklahoma."

You will listen to soloists Victor Pate, Gregory Petrin, Robert Onofrey, and Ignatius Espinos.

Stage "Magic" Voices

For stage effectiveness listen to Pate's solo in "Adeste Fideles." Voices will appear and approach from all corners of the auditorium. If you wish to know further details, just come to the concert.

For rhythmic precision listen to the Concert Chorus' rendition of the Russian "Hospodi Pomilui."

"White Christmas" will be done in solo but as yet, the soloist has not been selected.

A Russian Christmas carol is also a possibility. It would feature Gregory Petrin, soloist from the Midwest Byzantine Slavonic Choir.

End of Dances?

Once again a campus activity has failed.

In recent years there has been an unceasing plea on the part of the student body for more social events. There have also been many complaints that the school dances are too expensive for most students.

This year the Student Council took action to remedy the situation. In the space of two months there have been three campus dances, yet the response has been extremely poor.

The Monogram Club-sponsored Fall Frolics and the Student Council date dance combined did not even draw 60 couples. Since the latter dance was paid for entirely by the Council, we can find no explanation for the fact that only 27 couples attended.

It is only a matter of time before the student government tires of having to take a loss on any such activity it plans. The Council is here to serve the students and give them what they want when it is possible. This also works the other way; the Council won't force activities upon us if they aren't accepted.

If we hope to see campus social activities continue, then it is up to us to back them. One more such failure might end them completely.

Letter to the Editor

Gerald J. McInerney
St. Joseph's College
Collegeville, Ind.

Dear Editor:

In answer to your request for opinions and suggestions concerning the possibility of changing the name of this publication, I am taking this opportunity to present my reasons in favor of a renaming.

STUFF may have been adequate at one time, but certainly the word does not connote the same meaning now as it did when it was chosen. True, the dictionary may well defend the word as having many qualities, but it's quite a bother to keep referring everyone who asks about the meaning of STUFF to the dictionary for the answer.

The name of the paper should be one that is as much a part of the school as are the students themselves. It should be a name that would bring to the reader a clear, sharp picture of the school. It should be one that needs no explanation.

Ask anyone who has ever visited this campus, or for that matter anyone who has ever driven past the campus, to give his impression of what he noticed about the school. What is the first thing they recall? The fountain! There is your name! Does that give you a clear picture of the campus? Does that name need any explanation?

Gerald McInerney.

Carlson, Nelson Star In CP's Presentation

by John Frisz

The Columbian Players' first 1955 production, "Dial 'M' For Murder," was more than anything else a fine tribute to the director, Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli. "Dial 'M'" is a difficult play in the sense that the wonderfully intriguing tenseness must of necessity be conveyed by means of facial expression and varying tones of voice.

Jack Carlson, as Tony Wendice and Ruth Nelson as his wife Margot fulfilled this task admirably. Jack was, except for a few hesitant moments, the perfect image of the morbidly cunning ex-tennis star. Even his lively, bouncing walk indicated the athlete.

Ruth Nelson Evinces Sincerity

The most striking aspect of Mrs. Nelson's portrayal of Margot, the unsuspecting wife who is suddenly caught in the web of a horrible scheme, was her brilliant sincerity and complete absorption in character. Far and above her technical skill, it was this constant application of her entire dramatic ability to her role that brought Margot to exciting reality.

Bernie Balas, as the American T.V. writer Max Halliday showed the results of Mr. Cappuccilli's intelligent training. By his manner of speech—forthright, ironic and serious—he was definitely a writer, and definitely American.

Hebda Adds Irony to Play

The crucial role of the Scotland Yard inspector was handled well by Ed Hebda. Again, because of his training, he was able to give to the part the somewhat smug self-confidence and quiet irony it demanded.

Bill Schuler was a very competent Capt. Lesgate. The pitifully desperate situation into which the worthless ex-classmate of Tony's was forced was well articulated by Bill.

In fact, the entire production of "Dial 'M' For Murder" went smoothly and there was no serious flaw. For one scene in particular—that when the strangulation attempt is made on Margot—the complete darkness into which the killer entered was extremely effective.

However, one very un-nerving error should be pointed out. There was evident confusion on the audience's part as to its particular role in the evening's entertainment. Many of those viewing the play had evidently never seen a live dramatic presentation before in their young lives.

Familiar faces in unfamiliar attitudes were greeted with the sort of abusive laughter that upsets an actor tremendously. It should be realized that a great deal of hard work and energy went into this production. But even though some might be so narrow minded as to forget this, there can be absolutely no excuse for such a flagrant disrespect for the common proprieties of prudence and courtesy.

What Is Life?

What is the significance of life?

Within a few short weeks the annual Retreat will once again be upon us. This period of prayer and meditation offers us an ideal opportunity to diverge from the everyday routine of college life and dwell upon the significance of our being here and ultimately, our reason for existing.

All too often we adapt an indifferent attitude toward our purpose and goal on this earth. And since we are offered the opportunity through the Retreat to rectify this attitude, we are morally obligated to take advantage of it.

Albertus Magnus Signifies Science

by Dan Wilkinson

How many times have you, while on the way to the library, stopped a moment to look at the colorful placard in the display window outside the library entrance.

This placard represents the emblem of the Albertus Magnus Society, which was founded at St. Joseph's College in 1938.

But what is this society and why was it founded? Before we answer this, you should first know something of Albertus Magnus or, as he is more commonly referred to, St. Albert the Great.

St. Albert Given Title of "Universal Doctor"

St. Albert was a scholar who lived in the 13th century and held the title of Bishop of Ratisbon. He was acclaimed by the learned professors of Europe as the "Universal Doctor" because of his extraordinary genius in the fields of experimental science, philosophy and theology.

Pope Pius XI canonized St. Albert in 1931 and his feast-day is Nov. 15.

The society, therefore, is an honor society dedicated to St. Albert the Great and founded to give its members a better appreciation and understanding of the experimental sciences.

Society Shield Divided into Three Parts

The Albertus Magnus Society pin, which signifies a member of the organization, is a shield divided into three parts. The left side contains the coat of arms of St. Albert, depicted in the form of a rampant lion on a silver background.

The right side of the shield is composed of three lilies and an heraldic river with three drops of blood on a purple background. This is symbolic of St. Joseph's College and the Precious Blood Society.

The third part, which lies at the bottom of the shield, is a five-pointed star on a red background. This represents the five major branches of science.

Open Only to Science Students

The organization is open only to those students who have a major or minor in the sciences. To become a member a student must: have at least a "B" average in his major field of science; have an accumulative index of 2.5 in all other subjects; and have been a student of St. Joseph's College for at least one semester.

An annual Science Day is presented by A.M.S. in collaboration with the faculty and students within the division of the natural sciences. It is an open house and science exhibits and demonstrations are staged for the benefit of the public.

Meetings are held twice a month, and papers and demonstrations in the various fields of science are presented by members of the society.

At present, the Albertus Magnus Society consists of ten members. The moderator of the organization is Rev. Albert Wuest, C.P.P.S.

Pumas Foster Expensive Tastes

by Tom Skinner

What's your idea of the perfect meal? Chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, dressing and cake, maybe? If it is, then your idea differs from that of the majority of St. Joe men who, according to Miss Helen Skinner, college dietitian, prefer steak, French fries and pie a la mode.

To prepare this meal the following are needed: 350 pounds of meat, 800 pounds of potatoes, 125 pies and 35 gallons of ice cream. There will also be 150 loaves of bread, 12 gallons of coffee and 200 gallons of milk consumed. If juice is served, 40 gallons will be needed.

All meals are planned two weeks in advance and the food usually arrives several days before it is to be used. Some items, such as canned and frozen goods, are bought in large quantities, mainly from Chicago. A supply of 18,000 pounds of frozen foods and 2,195 cases of large-size canned goods will usually last six months.

Of the canned goods, corn is the favorite and beets the least-liked vegetables. Contrary to popular belief, spinach is well-liked.

The college farm furnishes all the eggs, milk and poultry. All baking is done by the kitchen staff, which numbers 27 full-time workers and 33 students.

Miss Skinner pointed out the fact that coffee is not very popular with the freshmen until exam time and then they seem to drink it constantly. Weather also determines the amount consumed.

Collegeville Confidential

by John White and Chuck Vietzen

Thanksgiving: A little over 300 years ago, a group of men and women saw fit to set aside one particular day to give thanks. Today we still set aside that day to give thanks for all the many benefits which God has given us. Right now we're all getting ready for a wonderful week-end. A week-end during which we'll all pause to give thanks with our families that we are in a land where there is such a thing as a Thanksgiving Day to God.

Final Returns

Last Thursday the freshman class selected the four men who will represent them in school activities for the forthcoming year. We hope that these candidates will conduct their campus affairs with as much spirit as they did their campaigns. Congrats to Jim McGowan, Jerry Walker, Jim Rogers and Dave Bauer, and to all the candidates.

Basketball Begins

Next week the sound of grunts and groans will give way to the sound of basketballs bouncing on the hardwood floors. The spirit which was so rampant in the stands on Saturday afternoons, if it invades the confines of the field house, can achieve the same results. This may very well be the rebuilding year in the basketball picture. An inexperienced squad and a new coach will make their debut on the home court Dec. 1 against Wabash. For this very reason, more than anything else, support of the team is a necessity.

The senior class will sponsor a pep rally to introduce the team and cheer them on to victory. It will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 30. Get out and make it a success.

Dial "S" for Success

Houselights were dimmed, the curtain rose, and the Columbian Players opened their 65th year of footlight appearances. "Dial 'M' for Murder" was the production selected to open the 1955-56 season.

This club certainly ranks as one of the most active extracurricular organizations on campus and deservedly so. The two hour presentation of any play which the C. P.'s produce is only the result of weeks of rehearsals, set construction, prop gathering and other feverish activities. The people who took their curtain calls last Saturday and Sunday nights were only a fraction of those who applied both time and talent towards increasing the entertainment on campus.

When there was applause for the cast, it meant that the work of the entire club had been acclaimed. But little else would have mattered were it not for the able direction of Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli. It is this man and the organization that we can thank for providing a fitting start to what we know will be one of the most successful years in the C.P.'s history.

It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas

On Dec. 13 the main event of the holiday season at St. Joe will take place when the Glee Club presents its annual Christmas Concert. Long a tradition here at Collegeville, the night is expected to draw a capacity crowd to the auditorium. From the first note of the Alma Mater to the end of the program, an enjoyable time can be guaranteed to all. So if you like good music and you want to be put in the Christmas mood, you'll be there. That's Dec. 13.

Dance Note

After opening our mouths ahead of time about the "success" of the Fall Frolics in the last issue of STUFF, we felt a bit let down. Then again last week-end, the Student Council date dance fell way short of expectations.

Let's hope that the Chicago and Lake County Club dances held over the holidays meet with better enthusiasm.

Kilmer's Concerts

No word of praise is necessary to the Silvertones for those of you who attended their concert a few weeks ago. We hope that their excellent performance is an indication of what the remainder of the season will be. Mr. Richard Kilmer should be complimented on this outstanding program.

Memo

Last Tuesday night, there was a notice on the bulletin boards around the campus. It was the notice from the president's office that the faculty by unanimous vote had removed the probationary status of football.

Personals . . . Vic Pate rolling the first ball of the intramural bowling season . . . Congratulations to Ralph Tite and Bob Hamman on their selection to the ICC All-Conference team . . . Four bats being caught in the third floor dorm . . . Coach Bobby Parker's Noll Lions taking the intramural football title . . . Closing note: from one columnist to the other—"I can be thankful on Thanksgiving for winding up with a turkey like you."

Tite, Hamman Selected To All-Conference Squad

Sophomores Bob Hamman at halfback and Ralph Tite at quarterback were elected to the 1955 I. C. C. All-Conference football team, as announced by conference president, Professor Dana Schwanholt of Valparaiso University.

The 1955 All-Conference team was organized that the seven coaches who select the squad were able to agree on 11 players. Previous honor squads always consisted of at least 14 men, with as many as 22 honored in the days of two-platoon football.

Hamman headed the list of selectees as one of the two unanimous selections. The other undisputed choice was Fred Thurston at tackle for Valparaiso. In the well-talented quarterback slot, the Pumas' field general, Ralph Tite, followed closely on the heels of these two men in the balloting by missing the top honors by only one vote. Also in this category was center Dick Jung of Valpo.

This season's honor squad, consisting in three seniors, six juniors, and two sophomores, is composed of four men from Valpo, three from Evansville, two from St. Joseph's, and one each from Indiana State and Ball State. Thirty-eight men were nominated by the coaches in the preliminary balloting.

The 1955 All-Conference Team:

Ends—
O'Brien, Valpo
Griffith, Indiana State
Tackles—
Thurston, Valpo
Cook, Ball State
Guards—

Halfbacks—

Eagles Take Xavier Crown

Regular play ended in Xavier Hall's intramural football league with Tom Busch's smooth working aggregation heading the parade with five wins against a single loss. Busch's outstanding passing and running ability earned him the most valuable player distinction. His teammate on the Eagles, Carvel Steinke, was the season's high scorer with 38 points.

In post-season games, the lower classmen eked out a 7 to 0 win over the upperclassmen with Busch scoring the lone touchdown and passing to Steinke for the extra point. In the game between the Eagles and the All Stars, it was again the throwing of Tom Busch that proved decisive as he passed to Steinke and Espinos for a 12 to 0 win.

Xavier Hall athletic director Joe Hinders announced that intramural basketball will get underway immediately after Thanksgiving, with five teams in competition: George Doyle's "Gael's," Hank Busch's "Yakopins," Joe Bitl's "Floorboard Five," Joe Hanish's "Five Gazelles" and Norb Koesler's "Oaks". Hinders will be assisted by Jim Franck.

Final Standings:

	Won	Lost	Tied
Busch's Eagles	5	1	0
Wehrle's Steelers	2	3	1
Moorman's Bears	1	4	1

Varsity Views

by Tom Phillipp

Congratulations are in order to Bob Hamman and Ralph Tite for their selection to the All-Conference football squad. This honor was well-deserved by their outstanding performance throughout the season. Yet the best back in the country would be just another player without the efforts of his blockers. So in this honor lies a share for each of their teammates. Among the backfield men, Ray Banary, Keith Fingerhut, Norb Daigle, Rog LaPointe, Chuck Spielman, and Bob Caporal merit recognition for grinding out that necessary yardage when it was vital to the Puma's cause. A pat on the back, too, to linemen Merle Effing, the only graduating member on the squad, and Paul Grupenhoff, John Kobza, Tim Faylor, and Ed Labbe for reinforcing the remarkable play of that regular Puma front wall.

Thus another season of football goes down in the record books. But unlike the previous years, it was not another role of "also-rans" for the Pumas. They performed the unpredictable in what was to be the midpoint in their process of rebuilding. With an expected two-year span before contention now eliminated, they find themselves ahead of schedule and sitting pretty for the coming years. Coach Bob Jauron and his staff have performed the impossible, but in a sense their work is just starting. The name they have made for themselves and the school will require just as much successful effort to uphold.

With the arrival of the basketball season, another rebuilding process is in the making at St. Joe, while other conference foes bolster their squads around returning veterans. Head coach Dale O'Connell has returning regulars Ray Banary at guard and 6 ft. 4 in. Greg Jancich at center to augment the small Puma squad, but all-conference Don Merkl and Willie Kellogg will be greatly missed. Replacements must also be found for front linemen Terry McCarthy and Chet Pilat. The team, in good shape after three weeks of conditioning, will employ the fast-break offense.

Starting berths are wide open to such candidates as Jancich, Fenker, and Pujo at center; Lewis, Noll, Elbert, and Angelo at forwards, and Banary, Lux, Daigle, Altstadt, and Deem at guards. Another season of tough competition awaits the 1955 Pumas.

Tite, Spielman Spark St. Joseph's To 39-12 Victory Over Chicago Illini

St. Joseph's College closed its 1955 football season in high gear a Saturday ago when the Pumas crushed the Chicago Illini 39-12 before a Dad's Day crowd at Collegeville.

St. Joe unleashed one of their most potent offensive attacks of the year as they ground out a total of 340 yards to finish the season with a record of six wins and three losses.

Score Three in Second Quarter

After a slow start in the first quarter, the Pumas really got under way in the second period when they scored three times. The first was on an electrifying 70-yard run by freshman halfback Chuck Spielman. Spielman gathered in a pass in the flat from quarterback Ralph Tite on the St. Joe 30 and raced along the western sidelines for the touchdown. Merle Effing added the extra point.

The next time the Pumas got the ball they scored again, as they held the Chicago Illini for downs and forced them to punt from their own 14. Safety man Dick Cote took the punt on the Illini 46 and returned it to the 29. Four plays later, Spielman raced 13 yards into the end zone. Effing's extra point attempt went wide.

Tite Passes for Third TD

With time running out in the second quarter St. Joe tallied again via the air-route as Tite passed 48 yards in four plays for the six pointer. The pay-off pitch was a five-yard toss to halfback Bob Caporal. Effing converted the point after touchdown to give the Pumas a 20-0 lead at halftime.

The Chicago Illini showed some signs of life in the early minutes of the third quarter when they marched 80 yards in 13 plays for the touchdown. Carl Eichstaedt scored from the four.

St. Joe turned on the heat again in the fourth period when they scored three times. Fullback Norb Daigle scored from five yards out to put the finishing touches to a 45-yard touchdown drive.

Spielman Marks Up Third Score

Quarterback Jim O'Brien set up the fifth St. Joe touchdown when he intercepted an Illini pass on the Chicago 40 and returned it to the 25. Three plays later, Spielman scored his third touchdown on a 16-yard run.

The final Puma touchdown came minutes later when O'Brien passed 49 yards to halfback Terry Biernat for the tally. Biernat converted the extra point to wind up St. Joe's scoring for the year.

On the last play of the game fullback Carnell Neuman blasted his way 25 yards for the Chicago Illini's final touchdown.

Intramural Scoreboard

by John F. White

Noll's mighty Lions ended the I. M. football season the same way they started it, with a championship. The Student Council tourney winners proved to be the toughest club in season play as they took their own division and went on to defeat a stubborn frosh squad, the Left Overs from Drexel Hall. The freshmen champions were barely nosed out by the upperclassmen 13-6. Pete Stueker and Wilson were outstanding for the first year men, and Coach Bob "Buddy" Parker deserves a lot of credit for the Lions' success this year.

Over all, the football season was a great success this year. There were approximately 250 men who participated in about 125 games and after the first two weeks of play there were no serious injuries. Credit for this should go to officials Pete Higgins, Jim Noll, Dick Dwinell, Chet Pilat, Jim Benson, Ray Cerney, George Lux, and Greg Jancich. These men did excellent work on a very difficult job.

The bowling season is now in full swing with a total of 24 teams participating in three leagues. Tom O'Rourke, student assistant of bowling, reports that the action at Maple Lanes has so far been met with much enthusiasm and a quantity of fine bowlers. Sophomore Jim Detloff led the first night's action with a smashing 615 series.

The picture for the Collegeville keggers after the initial action is:

TOP TEN		High Single Game
	Ave.
1. Detloff	205	Detloff	213
2. Kostyal	189
3. Mario	179
4. Wittry	178

On Sunday, Nov. 20, St. Joseph's sent its squad of the five highest bowlers to Loyola University in Chicago to compete in the Midwest Intercollegiate Bowling Congress. The Pumas competed in the MIBC against teams from Notre Dame, DePaul, and Valparaiso.

Immediately after the Thanksgiving holidays, I. M. basketball will begin with the Student Council preseason tourney. The winner of this tourney will receive individual awards from the Council. There will be about 30 teams on the hardwood this season.

Mr. Beane also announced plans for the first round volleyball tournament to be played immediately following the basketball. There will be a second round played after the basketball season is finished and the winners will meet to decide who will represent St. Joe in the extramural meet at St. Norbert's in the spring.

The Noll Hall Lions proved to be too much for the rest of the league as they took the championship along with the pre-season tourney sponsored by the Student Council. They are: (left to right) first row: Ed DeWald, Glenn Murphy, Frank O'Reilly, Don Straza and Dick Compo. Second row: Paul Swierkowski, Art Holacek, Gene Eifrid, Coach Bobby Parker, Larry Schmidt, John Lang, Bill Becker, and Joe Horney. (Photo by Franz)

Faculty Votes in Favor Of Continuing Football

The faculty of St. Joseph's College has voted to continue varsity football. The vote was taken at the regular meeting of Nov. 14. Two days later the College Board of Control unanimously approved the faculty decision.

This action came as the conclusion of a three-year probation period which the faculty and the Board had agreed upon, following the North Association's issuance of a new athletic policy back in 1952. The observe-and-think-it-over period had been set pending the adoption of a permanent NCA policy last spring.

The votes last week were the faculty and Board's answer at the end of the three-year trial. No dissenting voice was raised.

At the same meeting last week, the faculty proposed and discussed its first draft of a Statement of Athletic Policy. While no major changes of policy are planned such a statement is required by the North Central Association, the accrediting agency of the Midwest, of which St. Joseph's College became a member in 1950. The North Central has directed all member colleges and universities to put into print their beliefs concerning the purpose of sports, as well as their methods of administering and financing the sports program.

Prudential Opens Insurance Institute

The Commerce Club sponsored the first session of the new Insurance Institute at its November meeting.

Mr. Joseph Schreck, an official of the Prudential Life Insurance Company discussed and pointed out to interested students the "history, position, and importance of insurance in the world today, human life values and their insurance needs as well as to how the individual should anticipate and plan his insurance."

The Insurance Institute was conducted by Mr. Schreck and Mr. Thomas Shaw, Prudential representatives from Columbus, Ohio.

The Institute's basic purpose is to make every college man aware of the importance of insurance in his up and coming business or professional life and to make available to him, consultation about his own personal needs.

A plan in which upperclassmen would help freshmen and sophomores for one hour each week in their related studies was submitted to the club by president Richard Obergfell.

The next activity will be a field trip to Indianapolis on Dec. 8.

Christmas Concert . . .

Stage Gets New Look

At the concert you will see the stage fitted with a new look—a ceiling and recently decorated flats and backdrop, all in tune with the Christmas spirit. John Tobin and Urban Thobe will supervise the manual work involved in these preparations. They, with their committee, will collaborate with the regular stage hands.

And Robert Kilbourne is considering some publicity thoughts to draw you to the concert. He has to persuade only the new students; the returnees have seen and heard—and they are firmly convinced.
